

Onion

The word onion is derived from the Latin word "unio" which means large pearl.

Onions make you cry because they contain sulphur which is released into the air when they are cut. This sulphur then reacts to the moisture on your eyes to produce a mild form of sulphuric acid.....ouch!