

Diplodocus

Fascinating Facts

The Diplodocus is the longest known dinosaur stretching up to 27 meters long. They were herbivores (plant eaters) and roamed around in herds.

The Diplodocus is most recognised for its long neck and tail. The tail could be thrashed around like a whip.

