

Triceratops

Fascinating Facts

Triceratops is Greek for “three horned face”. The horns of the Triceratops make it very distinctive. The Triceratops was a herbivore (a plant eater) and were around 9 meters long and 2 meters tall at the hips.

Both Triceratops and Tyrannosaurus occupied the same area, the marshes and forests of western North America. It is likely that the Triceratops was food for the Tyrannosaurus Rex!