

Olympic Rings – London 2012

Symbolism of the Rings

The Olympic rings consist of 5 interlocking rings in blue, yellow, black green and red. They represent the union of the 5 continents and the coming together of the world's athletes at the Olympic Games.

History of the rings

The rings were originally designed by the founder of the modern Olympic Games Baron Pierre de Coubertin.

