A Scarecrow's View

Write a poem from the point of view of the scarecrow.

Imagine you are the scarecrow! What can you see, hear, smell and feel? What do you think about the birds, the changing seasons and your job in the field? Write a poem to share your thoughts and feelings.

Ideas to include:

- What you can see
- What you can hear
- What you can smell
- How you feel
- What you do all day
- The changing seasons
- The birds and other animals
